

“To distinguish the world’s clamour from the gentle whispering of God in our hearts is spiritually challenging but intensely rewarding. Your Ears Will Hear offers a smorgasbord of stories and practices for seekers to draw from as they pursue their quest to hear God’s voice. A wonderful collection of words, feelings, thoughts, events and actions that provides pilgrims with a rich palette of resources.

—Paul Hawker, author of Soul Quest: A Spiritual Odyssey Through 40 Days and 40 Nights of Mountain Solitude

“I believe this book will help to burn away the fog around the theme of hearing God’s voice. Steve and Evy share their life experiences about learning to listen to God—and invite us to journal our own experiences as we learn to recognize the voice of God.”

—Paul R. Wartman, MARK Centre Board Chair

“Your Ears Will Hear is a refreshing and inspiring guide for anyone interested in knowing God’s voice and cooperating with Him. It’s been my privilege to watch Steve and Evy and their six kids experience the life transforming impact of listening to God together.”

—Randy Friesen, General Director of MB Mission

“Through some truly remarkable circumstances, God introduced me to Steve and the ministry of the MARK Centre during a very difficult time in my life. Since then I have heard God’s voice and seen His hand working in my life like never before.”

—Mike Nyvall, Abbotsford businessman

“Evy is a woman who is known as being direct, honest and full of integrity. She is the real deal and every word she has written here comes from that place within her soul that is deeply authentic.”

—Cathy A.J. Hardy, musician and retreat facilitator
